

UFV'S ILOS

University of the Fraser Valley's Institutional Learning Outcomes

The University of the Fraser Valley (UFV), located on traditional Stó:lō territory, recognizes and respects Indigenous ways of knowing. UFV is committed to providing our communities with a variety of high quality, student-centered programs that honour diversity and foster a passion for learning.

Each UFV graduate possesses the following abilities and, therefore, can demonstrate the following interconnected institutional learning outcomes:

Graduates....

- 1 Demonstrate information competency

Graduates gather, organize, and critically examine written, oral, visual, and numerical information. They efficiently use technology as a tool to gather and evaluate information. Graduates utilize relevant and credible sources, recognizing the need to gather information from a variety of perspectives. Graduates use information ethically, respecting the legal restrictions that exist when using published, confidential, and/or proprietary information.
- 2 Analyze critically and imaginatively

Graduates engage in the examination of ideas, issues, and problems, drawing on established bodies of knowledge and means of analysis. Graduates organize information logically and consider alternate strategies. They recognize the need for multiple voices and seek opportunities for those voices to be heard. Graduates are creative and generative. They use divergent or lateral thinking to expand on ideas and create new ways of looking at a situation.
