MESSAGE FROM THE CHANCELLOR

Ch'itóletsel (I thank you).

Convocation is a time of celebration, and a very special moment to recognize the achievements of you, our graduates.

I sincerely congratulate you and your families for your very good work. We are so proud to have helped you along your path of education. Learning is a lifelong journey for each of us, and we are honored to have walked this important step together with you.

Thank you, families and supporters, for sharing your loved ones with us in their pursuit of higher education.

My grandmother once told me to take what I've learned and share it, or it has no value. She said to learn, but to also maintain your values and hang on to who you are. Then, collectively, we can all work together to make our world a better place.

Graduates, you will always be a cherished part of our family here at the University of the Fraser Valley. I raise my hands to you.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Thank you for joining our celebration. In four ceremonies this spring, we will congratulate over 2,000 graduates of a wide variety of academic, applied, and professional programs. We applaud their talent, diligence, and successes. They have earned our respect and our faith in their ability to master whatever challenges come their way. We know they will use their knowledge, skill, and creativity not just for their own benefit but to enrich all of us and our communities, here and far abroad.

Let us also use this occasion to show our gratitude to the dedicated and talented faculty and staff who are building our futures through their work with our students, and to thank the host of volunteers, community leaders, patrons, and benefactors who support this work.

And finally, dear family and friends of our students, please know how much we value your encouragement and support.

Congratulations, graduates. Together, we have much to celebrate and cherish.

Dr. Mark D. Evered
UFV President and Vice-Chancellor

MESSAGE FROM THE UFV ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

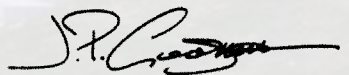

Congratulations to the graduating class of 2015!

As your time at UFV draws to a close as a student, the UFV Alumni Association is pleased to welcome you as its newest members. Joining over 34,000 alumni, you are now part of a special group of individuals, all united through our common experience as one-time UFV students.

Over the past two years we have been working hard to grow our association, all the while focusing on building a culture of community. From the development of our own unique brand, to the launch of new engagement strategies, to a new mentorship program designed to connect alumni with students, we are playing our part in ensuring that everyone is welcome.

Moreover, we are working tirelessly to ensure that our alumni feel connected in a meaningful way, and that future generations of students have the best possible experience while attending UFV.

For more information on how you can actively engage the UFV Alumni Association and stay connected, visit ufvalumni.ca.

Justin P. Goodrich, AA '11, BA '12
Chair, Board of Directors

ABOUT OUR CEREMONY, PROGRAM, AND SERVICES

Each ceremony takes about two hours to complete. To keep disruptions to a minimum, we ask for graduates to stay for the entire ceremony and ask their guests to remain seated during the ceremony. Please turn cell phones to vibrate.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Each graduate will have two photos taken of them by Artona Photography: one as they shake the hand of the President, and one as they exit the stage. After the ceremony, family members and friends will have the opportunity to take photos of graduates at the venue. Since professional photographs will be available, family members and guests are encouraged to remain in their seats — relax and enjoy the ceremony.

RECEPTION

Immediately following the ceremony, all guests are invited to join graduates, faculty, and staff at an informal reception on the concourse at the Abbotsford Centre. Light refreshments will be served.

REGALIA (GOWNS)

Graduating students and faculty are reminded to return their gowns following the ceremony and reception.

SERVICES

Both prior to and following the ceremony, you will find the following services on the concourse:

- UFV Bookstore for alumni merchandise and graduation gifts;
- UFV Alumni Association for fresh-cut flowers, commemorative wine orders, Leader frames, Commencement t-shirts and more; and
- Concession for purchasing snacks and refreshments.

STUDENT RECOGNITION — WHAT THE SYMBOLS MEAN

Dean's List of Distinguished Students (*)

The Deans' List recognizes those university students who have maintained a high academic standard throughout their course of studies. To be eligible for the Deans' List, a student must:

- (a) have successfully completed at least 15 credits in a semester with a semester grade point average of at least 3.5; or
- (b) have a documented permanent disability that affects his/her ability to participate in full-time studies and have successfully completed at least nine credits in a semester with a semester grade point average of at least 3.5; or
- (c) have completed all the program graduation requirements with a grade point average of at least 3.5 based on the credits earned while in the program or the previous five years, whichever is shorter, with a semester GPA of at least 3.0 in the most recent semester in which at least one graded course was completed; or
- (d) be in an entry-level Trades program and have an average of 90% or higher in all courses.

Recognition of Outstanding Achievement (+)

This list is made up of a few students in each department in recognition of both academic excellence and outstanding performance in their program.

Conditional Graduates (#)

Students in these programs are conditional graduates awaiting completion of courses in the next few weeks. Upon successful completion of all requirements and final approval from the UFV Senate, students will be awarded their credential.

Traditions

STÓ:LŌ TERRITORY

UFV strives to be a place of learning that recognizes, respects, and includes indigenous ways of knowing. Our Fraser Valley campus locations are in the traditional territory of the Stó:lō Nations: people of the river.

THE TALKING STICK

The Talking Stick is a gift from the Stó:lō people to UFV, honouring all aboriginal people. The Talking Stick and aboriginal drummers lead the academic procession into Convocation and the recession after the ceremony.

The figures on the Talking Stick being used at UFV's Convocation are a wolf and a thunderbird. The wolf is symbolic of "the teacher" in Stó:lō territory, while the thunderbird represents the highest level of knowledge.

Most universities in the Commonwealth have a ceremonial mace, which accompanies the convocation ceremonies.

It is the staff of office, representing official authority (like the Speaker of the House of Commons).

UFV uses the Talking Stick rather than a mace for this purpose, thus bringing together a partnership between aboriginal and university traditions.

OUR TRADITIONS

THE CHANCELLOR

The Chancellor is the ceremonial head of the university, presiding over Convocation and conferring UFV credentials. As a representative of the public interest at the university, the Chancellor also acts as an ambassador for UFV and is called upon to represent the institution at major events.

Dr. Gwen Point Shoysqwelwhet

Dr. Gwen Point is UFV's second Chancellor. She holds a BEd from UBC, a MEd from the University of Portland, an EdD from Simon Fraser University, and an honorary doctorate from the University of Victoria. Her connections to UFV and the Fraser Valley stretch back decades. She's been a student, a member of the Board of Governors, a faculty member, and an Aboriginal curriculum coordinator, to name just a few of her roles.

Dr. Point has also held a number of provincial government and regional posts supporting education, child and family services, and First Nations communities. She is a respected Stó:lō leader, mentor, and cultural advisor who has contributed her cultural knowledge and experience to numerous books, conferences, workshops, and communities, and earned many accolades and awards. Her ceremonial experience as BC's Chatelaine (spouse of the Lieutenant Governor) serves her well in her role as UFV's Chancellor.

THE CHANCELLOR'S MEDALLION

UFV's medallion is worn by the Chancellor for very special occasions. The radiant diamonds in the design symbolize future alumni spreading their knowledge. The BC jade in the centre reflects our region's rich farming and ecological roots. This hand-crafted 18 kt white and yellow gold medallion was a gift to the university from Brian Lee of Abbotsford, BC.

traditions

ACADEMIC DRESS

Traditional academic regalia consists of a gown, hood, and a mortarboard or cap and tassel. The wearing of robes became common in the middle ages. In monasteries and universities of the time, scholars wore the same long closed gowns as other medieval men. By the time the University of Cambridge was founded in the early 13th century, doctors in law and music were permitted to wear gowns in scarlet, purple, and red. Over time, garments and colours came to identify their university. Regalia colours often matched those of the university patron, or the colours of the city in which the university was located.

At UFV, regalia uses the university's rich green colours. There are vee-stoles for diploma and certificate graduates, while bachelor program graduates wear degree hoods. The coloured binding or trim on the edge of the degree hoods represents the faculty from which a student is graduating.

UFV HOOD TRIM COLOURS ARE:

■ White	Arts
■ Forest green	Professional Studies
■ Silver	Health Sciences
■ Pale green	Science
■ Emerald green	Alumni Association (blue cord)
	Board of Governors (silver cord)
	Senate (gold cord)
■ Royal blue velvet	Honorary degree
■	The addition of red cord denotes a master's degree
■ Pale green on a green hood	UFV Faculty and Administration

Faculty of Professional Studies

NATHAN ABRAHAMS

Bachelor of Business Administration

Life has changed substantially for Nathan Abrahams since he first came to UFV.

As a student member of the UFV Board of Governors, he gained what he describes as “invaluable business leadership experience” during his two-year term. He also served as a student member of the University Senate and was president of the Business Administration Student Association in 2013.

Nathan volunteered for Student Life, where he participated in new student orientation. He was a leader in the Universities Christian Ministries Club and the International Friendship Club.

His advice to students? Stay busy.

“Get involved and look for opportunities,” he says.

“Participating will give you a chance to grow. Be careful you’re not too busy at first, but follow your heart and you’ll achieve your goals.”

Nathan worked as an accountant and financial administrator at an Abbotsford business and won the $1,000 Rotary Leadership Award in 2013 and was on the Dean’s List in 2010, 2011, and 2012.

Perhaps overshadowing these impressive achievements are two of the biggest changes in Nathan’s life since coming to UFV: he is now married and has a six-month-old son.

Faculty of Science,

Faculty of Health Sciences

TONY CHAE

Bachelor of Science in Nursing

Tony Chae’s family tradition fundamentally helps people enjoy their lives more by improving their health. Tony’s aunt and mother are both nurses and Tony has joined them as a Bachelor of Science in Nursing graduate.

Tony has volunteered in health care since grade school and, at UFV, was very involved in contributing to the well-being and academic success of his classmates.

Tony served on the Nursing Student Association (NSA) executive as a representative and as president. With his colleagues, he developed the New Student Nurse Orientation event and created a student-led mentoring program.

Tony has earned the UFV Outstanding Achievement designation in the Bachelor of Science in Nursing program. This award recognizes a student with a GPA of 3.5 or higher who has demonstrated leadership skills and consistent clinical performance. Tony also received this year’s Dean’s Medal of Excellence in the School of Health Sciences for his GPA of 4.15 and for the promise he has shown in his field of study.

“The journey of becoming a nurse — facing challenges with people who become your friends and colleagues — was a terrific experience,” he explains. “I encourage my fellow graduates to use your education to seize opportunities. You’ll learn about yourself and how your unique skills can contribute to society.”

EACH YEAR UFV DEPARTMENTS NOMINATE STUDENTS TO PRESENT THE GRADUATE ADDRESS AT EACH CONVOCATION CEREMONY.

IT IS A GREAT HONOUR TO BE SELECTED TO REPRESENT THE GRADUATES OF 2015. WE CONGRATULATE THE FOLLOWING STUDENT SPEAKERS:

Fri, June 12, 9 am

College of Arts

DAVID SEYMOUR

Bachelor of Arts
History major and Art History extended minor

David Seymour admits he's not an artist. He doesn't apply brush to canvas, but while at UFV he crafted masterpieces in his passion: art history.

David was a creative and socially engaged contributor to student life at UFV and an outstanding student, achieving an astonishing GPA of 4.27 in his art history classes.

He was the UFV student representative on the board of The Reach Gallery and Museum in Abbotsford, where he curated a large exhibition. He also created PIPE, a new web-based fine arts journal featuring art and art history essays by UFV students.

David received the Outstanding Achievement in Art History Award in 2012, and the UFV Student Writing Award in 2014. This year he is the recipient of the Dean's Medal of Excellence in the Faculty of Humanities within the College of Arts. This honour is awarded to a student with a very high GPA who demonstrates outstanding performance and promise in his chosen field.

"Make your own opportunities — people aren't going to give them to you," he advises. "Take a leap of faith and you may just find out how much you can achieve."

David has been accepted into the prestigious Courtauld Institute of Art at the University of London in England.

Fri, June 12, 2 pm

Faculty of Applied & Technical Studies, Faculty of Access & Continuing Education, College of Arts: Criminal Justice

SUKHVINDER SINGH MANGAT

Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Criminal Justice

Sukhvinder Singh Mangat is a rare student. Not only is he academically gifted with an impressive GPA of 4.14, but he is also self-motivated, well-rounded, and continually seeking new challenges.

After completing a Community Pharmacy Technician certificate and entering that profession, he pursued and earned a Professional Communication Essentials certificate, and will now earn his third designation from UFV: a Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Criminal Justice degree. Sukhvinder is receiving the Governor General's Silver Student Medal for the highest GPA in a Bachelor degree program.

Faculty members comment that Sukh is one of their most exceptional students. He exhibits a high level of critical thinking and demonstrates a commitment to excellence in all aspects of his work. These skills have contributed to his success at securing research assistant positions on two projects concerning human trafficking and the internet-facilitated exploitation of youth.

Sukh recently presented his honours project work on declining crime rates at UFV's Student Research Day and received the Provost and Vice-President Academic Award and the Undergraduate Research Excellence Award in Criminology.

"I think my career goals align well with my personality and my values as a person. I hope my fellow graduates can try to live a balanced life — one that focuses on being a good family person and living with integrity."

FACULTY RECOGNITION

RESEARCH EXCELLENCE AWARD

This annual award is in recognition of the importance of research to UFV and its students.

DR. LENORE NEWMAN

Canada Research Chair in Food Security and the Environment

UNIQUE APPROACH TO STUDYING AGRICULTURE ON THE EDGE

Academia, applied research, and activism are all connected in the eyes of Dr. Lenore Newman.

When she accepted the role of Canada Research Chair in Food Security in the Environment at UFV, she knew she'd be focusing on research that is extremely relevant to the region, and on topics that are at times contentious.

Her staunch defense of the principle of maintaining farmland placed in British Columbia's Agricultural Land Reserve, a position solidified after formal research into the 40-year history of the ALR, makes her a popular source for media commentary.

"Preserving farmland is so valuable economically and important culturally that it is a topic for major debate. I love this region, and there is some activism inherent in my job because it is a fight. Fraser Valley farmland is some of the best farmland in the world and it is too valuable to lose."

Since arriving at UFV in 2011, Newman has led the establishment of the Agriburban Research Centre at UFV, which is dedicated to the study of landscapes on the edge of major urban areas, with a focus on creating thriving agricultural regions within cities. In 2014, she was invited to join the Royal Society of Canada's College of New Scholars, Artists, and Scientists. She was also recognized by the Devorah Kahn Foundation for her work on farmers' markets, and by the Real Estate Foundation for leadership on the study of sustainable food systems.

She recently completed a book on Canada's food culture titled Speaking in Cod Tongues: Exploring Canada's Cuisine, and has literally eaten her way through many thousands of kilometres of travel.

As for winning the UFV Research Excellence award, Newman says: "It feels very good to be recognized."

TEACHING EXCELLENCE AWARD

Each year through this award, UFV recognizes not only the classroom aspect of teaching, but also the behind-the-scenes work and dedication that goes above and beyond the job description.

JAN LASHBROOK GREEN

Library & Information
Technology

EMPOWERING STUDENTS

The term ‘born to teach’ applies to few educators as accurately as it does to Jan Lashbrook Green, this year’s recipient of the University of the Fraser Valley’s Teaching Excellence Award.

The honour arrives just in time for Lashbrook Green, who retires this spring after dedicating the last four decades to the field of education.

A former UFV Library and Information Technology (LIBIT) student who then taught in the program for 13 years, she humbly empathizes with the rigors of pursuing post-secondary education.

She also believes deeply in the very core of LIBIT training, saying, “You can’t make informed decisions if you don’t have good information.”

And it’s also smart to learn. After graduating with a Bachelor of Education from the University of British Columbia in 1972, Lashbrook Green taught elementary school in Victoria before taking time off to start her family. She resumed her education with UCFV’s Library & Information Studies diploma in 1998 before returning to UBC for her Master of Library & Information Studies in 2001. She worked as both a library technician and a librarian at the Surrey Public Library before joining UFV for a stint as a sessional instructor in 2001, then as permanent faculty in 2002.

“I’ve been a student here, and a teacher. I’ve made friends and lifelong memories. It’s been a real full circle,” she says.

PROFESSOR EMERITUS AWARDS

The professor emeritus designation is an honorary status awarded to select retiring faculty members in recognition of long service and contribution to the university.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

DOCTOR OF LAWS

SHIRZAD AHMED

Social justice champion

Effectively fighting for the rights of refugees and immigrants from 144 countries takes 12 hours a day, seven days a week. And Shirzad Ahmed wouldn't have it any other way.

He survived Saddam Hussein's brutal oppression, absorbing all the knowledge and education he could while he and his fellow Kurds were shelled, beaten, and bombarded with chemical weapons. His father scraped together $400 and launched Shirzad on an epic overland trek to find freedom and opportunity. He knocked on the doors of 13 countries before gaining temporary refuge in Italy and then a permanent home in Canada.

Shirzad started studying at what was then the University College of the Fraser Valley in 1992. He completed his BA at Simon Fraser University and went on to the University of Calgary for his law degree, but Shirzad's heart stayed in the Fraser Valley.

Shirzad's door is open to countless refugees fleeing persecution from every corner of the globe. He often assists them for free and even pays their court costs out of his own pocket.

He received the 2008 Distinguished Service award in Pro Bono Legal Service from the Law Society of Alberta and the Canadian Bar Association. In 2009, he was inducted as a member of the Alberta Order of Excellence — to which only 110 Albertans have been named, including just 11 lawyers.

Shirzad was also named one of UFV's Top 40 Alumni in 2014 and was the Distinguished Alumni award winner in 2011. He is the first UFV alumnus to earn an honorary degree at UFV.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

DOCTOR OF TECHNOLOGY

DR. CATHERINE HICKSON

Prolific & pioneering volcanologist doesn't go with the flow

From a child full of wonder at Yellowstone National Park's gushing geysers to a young woman surviving blasted rock and ash near Mount St. Helens, volcanologist Catherine Hickson has had her adventures.

Now she's ready to embark on her latest after being awarded an honorary degree from the University of the Fraser Valley.

Though Hickson started at the University of Alberta studying recreation and then psychology, she moved onto the University of British Columbia's geology program, earning an honours BSc (cum laude).

During her undergraduate days at UBC 35 years ago, Hickson stole away for a Victoria Day long weekend adventure after seismic activity had been increasing under Mount St. Helens. Her life changed forever when she watched from her campsite as the volcano erupted only 14 km away. She wrote a book about her experience that day: Mt. St. Helens: Surviving the Stone Wind.

Hickson worked as a volcanologist for Natural Resources Canada's Geological Survey of Canada in Vancouver. She ascended to the position of Research Scientist Level 5, the highest attainable within the public service of Canada. She's the author of more than 100 scientific works, ranging from journal articles to abstracts. Her critical work paved the way for continued research, as well as for other women in her field.

One of the few female leaders in the earth science field, Hickson is active in mentoring women and young managers and was one of the founding members of the Scientists and Innovators in the Schools program.

After nearly 25 years in the public sector, Hickson moved into the corporate world, serving as vice-president, exploration, for a geothermal energy company, then president of her own exploration service company, Tuya Terra Geo Corp. Her work often involves harnessing electricity from the hot water and steam released by volcanic activity.

DOCTOR OF LETTERS

MARGO KANE

A natural storyteller and artistic innovator fusing performing arts and Aboriginal narratives

Movement and expression have defined Margo Kane for more than 40 years during an accomplished professional performance career.

You can't categorize her, and you can't keep her still.

A seemingly endless well of perpetual energy helps this dynamo tell her own story, express herself as an artist, and facilitate the sharing of many stories reflective of the Aboriginal experience in Canada.

Kane is an Aboriginal storyteller, dancer, singer, animator, video and installation artist, producer, director, writer, and teacher who has been active on the Canadian cultural scene for more than four decades. She is the founder and Artistic Managing Director of Full Circle: First Nations Performance. Her one-woman show, Moonlodge, is considered a classic in the Aboriginal theatre genre. She runs the annual Talking Stick Festival in Vancouver. As artistic director of Spirit Song Native Theatre, she has developed performances based on stories and legends of Aboriginal communities in the region as well as stories from the real lives of her students.

"I was a natural performer and storyteller since childhood, and I just followed my path," she recalls. "It was the only thing I could do that made me feel good! I wasn't made to be a worker bee. I am an artist through and through. It was the only path that made sense to me. I had to do what I loved.

"I create work for the body when I am creating a piece. I don't sit down and write. I had my own ideas about what kind of performance I wanted to see, and I created it.

"We all have energy moving through us. We can choose to use it as fuel to do something inspiring, to live our lives and be well in the world. I didn't go to university. I learned as I lived. So it is very special to be recognized with this degree."

Giving to UFV's mission

— there are many options

The University Advancement team at UFV is all about inviting supporters who are passionate about our mission of education to invest in it financially and otherwise.

We really have a very special role facilitating and matching our supporters' passion for our mission with many opportunities to make a big impact on the lives of people that UFV's mission touches. And like any other critical relationship, we learn from our donors how they view us and bring back important feedback on how we can continue to strengthen our mission to better serve students and our community.

—David Leis, UFV Director of Advancement

Recurring/Monthly

UFV can accommodate recurring or monthly giving in any form — cash, cheque, or credit card. How you give is up to you. You can designate your funds towards the project of your choice.

Gift-in-kind

A gift-in-kind is a gift of physical property or non-cash gift. It allows the university to receive (and receipt) an item that we would have otherwise been required to purchase. From fabric for our fashion program or scrap steel for welding, your gift-in-kind can have an enormous impact on the quality of our students' education.

Planned giving

Consider making UFV a part of your future plans and ensure a legacy that lasts forever. We can help make the process simple and meaningful. Planned giving allows you the time to incorporate the university into your estate affairs at your convenience. Planned giving can be in the following forms: as a bequest in a will; by naming UFV in an annuity, a life insurance policy, or other similar financial product; or by identifying UFV as a recipient of a trust. By including UFV in a bequest, you guarantee that the funds set aside for the university are designated according to your preferences and are a part of your estate.

Sponsorship

Corporations wishing to sponsor a UFV activity or event can participate in a variety of sponsorship programs. UFV's sponsorship program provides excellent value to help market your brand or service to our large university community. From individual student athletes to large campus events, sponsorship allows your corporation another way to partner with UFV, show support, and raise awareness of your product or service. UFV Advancement also works hard to facilitate related community partnerships with many organizations who wish to collaborate closely with the university.

GINNY DENNEHY

Crusader dedicates life to mental health cause after loss of her children

Ginny Dennehy didn't plan to be a crusader for mental health. But after losing her two children in separate tragedies, that is the course her life has taken.

Ginny and her husband, Kerry, first mourned the loss of their 17-year-old son, Kelty, in 2001, and then lost their 23-year-old daughter, Riley, in 2009.

Kelty died by suicide after being overwhelmed by clinical depression and seeing no other way out of his personal darkness.

Riley passed away in Thailand after being prescribed too strong a sedative to treat a separated shoulder.

Any parent faced with the loss of all of their children would have a hard time returning from the abyss of grief, but Ginny and Kerry decided to channel their grief and focus on helping others.

"When I was at the hospital wishing I could will Kelty back to life while he was on life support, and then realizing that I couldn't, I decided then and there that I had to do something to help other families in this situation," she recalls.

Out of the tragedy of Kelty's death came the Kelty Patrick Dennehy Foundation, with a mandate of preventing depression-related suicide in young people.

Since its inception, the Kelty Foundation has raised nearly $7 million toward care, education, and research projects in the area of youth mental health. Initiatives the foundation has supported include the Kelty Mental Health Resource Centre at B.C. Children's Hospital, a research chair focused on depression at UBC, the B.C. Crisis Line for youth suicide prevention, and mental health services at Lions Gate Hospital.

Dennehy stresses that there is hope for young people suffering from depression.

Find out more about the Kelty Patrick Dennehy Foundation at thekeltyfoundation.org.
