From the President

Congratulations graduates! You have persevered and succeeded in achieving your goal in this phase of your educational journey. I hope today is an occasion you will remember fondly for the rest of your life.

This year UFV is proud to invite our community into the heart of our Abbotsford campus for Convocation 2023 and I'm thrilled to see UFV grads crossing our stage — especially this class, whose education was shaped by the difficult years of the pandemic.

While I am looking forward to our ceremonies, I'll miss President Joanne MacLean, who embraces these days with enthusiasm and energy but who cannot be with us this year as she is recovering from a health issue. UFV is fortunate to have such a dedicated and dynamic leader and we are looking forward to welcoming her back in the months ahead.

UFV's coat of arms features the Halq'eméylem word Íyáqáwtxw, which means "the House of Transformation". This word also appears in our mission statement: engaging learners, transforming lives, and building community. At UFV we are grateful to have such an incredibly strong and supportive community — a community that has graciously supported our students by providing research opportunities, co-op and work-study placements, financial support, and mentorship and guidance for UFV students for nearly 50 years. We are delighted to have members of our community — and yours — here to witness your transformation from students to alumni.

The achievement of a university credential is seldom managed without the support of many people — your family, friends, parents, and partners. Today is a celebration for these incredible people too, so please take time to thank and honour them for their role in your success.

I'm confident the skills you have gained will transform your world and serve you well as you begin your career. Education is integral in understanding and caring for the world around us: from the environment to the arts, from health science to economics, no matter your area of study, education will help you navigate the forces shaping society.

On behalf of everyone at UFV, enjoy today and I wish you every success in life. Congratulations!

From the Chancellor

Thank you for joining the University of the Fraser Valley to celebrate the achievements of a remarkable and diverse graduating class. In six ceremonies, held for the first time in more than a decade in the heart of our Abbotsford campus, and in our own venue, UFV will award credentials to graduates from a wide variety of academic, applied, and professional programs.

Graduates, I applaud your talent, your hard work, and your success. You have earned our respect and the respect of your colleagues and mentors by displaying excellence and by overcoming challenges along the way. We are confident your acquired knowledge will benefit you, your family, and your community.

I know you have received unconditional support from your friends, faculty, staff, and many others during your journey, so please take a moment to thank your support team and contemplate how you might “pay it forward” to those who may one day need your help.

At UFV we engage learners, transform lives, and build community. The university is fortunate to have many volunteers, community leaders, alumni, and benefactors helping us accomplish this mission. We at UFV are deeply grateful for this community support and we thank you for partnering with us as we build a strong educational community and a strong future. We appreciate the trust you have placed in the university and treasure this support. Thank you for sharing UFV’s belief that education is one of the best investments in our students, in our future, and in our society.

Congratulations graduates, I wish you all the best in the next chapter of your journey.

DR. ANDY SIDHU
Chancellor

From the Alumni Association

On behalf of the UFV Alumni Association Board of Directors, we extend our heartfelt congratulations to the Class of 2023! We are thrilled to welcome you into the UFV Alumni Association: you automatically become a member upon graduation and join an exceptional community of remarkable individuals.

Graduates, you have achieved a significant milestone! As you cross the stage today, you are not only receiving your well-deserved credential but also becoming part of a global network of 50,000 alumni. We trust that the valuable skills, insights, and knowledge you've acquired will serve you well as you embark on your exciting new journey.

The UFV alumni community consists of individuals who genuinely make a difference. Our presence spans far and wide, and we are committed to harnessing our expertise and passion to positively impact our communities.

As you move forward, know that you are in the company of change-makers who are shaping the future. We eagerly anticipate witnessing your accomplishments and celebrating your successes along the way.

We couldn't be prouder of you, and we look forward to seeing the incredible things you will achieve next.

TONY DHALI WAL, BA '12
Chair, UFV Alumni Association

OUR TRADITIONS

Stó:lō Territory

UFV strives to be a place of learning that recognizes, respects, and includes Indigenous ways of knowing. Our campuses are situated on the territory of the Stó:lō peoples. The Stó:lō have an intrinsic relationship with what they refer to as S'ólh Téméxw (Our Sacred Land); therefore, we express our gratitude and respect for the honour of living and working on this territory.

THE TALKING STICK

The Talking Stick is a gift from the Stó:lō people to UFV, honouring all Indigenous people. The Talking Stick and Stó:lō drummers lead the academic procession into Convocation and the recession after the ceremony.

The figures on the Talking Stick are a wolf and a thunderbird. The wolf is symbolic of “the teacher” in Stó:lō territory, while the thunderbird represents the highest level of knowledge.

Most universities in the Commonwealth have a ceremonial mace, which accompanies the Convocation ceremonies. It is the staff of office, representing official authority (like the Speaker of the House of Commons).

UFV uses the Talking Stick rather than a mace for this purpose, thus bringing together a partnership between Indigenous and university traditions.

THE DRUM

The Ceremonial Drum was presented to UFV by the Stó:lō people in 1997. The drum is decorated with the symbol of a thunderbird.

Steven Point, who was then the chiefs’ representative of the Stó:lō Nation, presented the drum for use at Convocation and other ceremonies.

“It’s with great pride that I present a symbol of our fraternity, camaraderie, and loyalty,” said Point at the presentation ceremony.

“We all spent nine months with our mothers, waiting to come in to the world, and we heard her heartbeat, and when we were born, we recognized our mothers by their heartbeat. When we make the sound of a drum it’s a symbol of the heartbeat of our mother. It’s a precious sound, it gathers people together, and we sing our songs.

“That’s why we chose this symbol to present to you. We truly want to come together, and to have a good relationship with all of you. I hope and pray that it will always stand as a symbol of the affinity between our groups of people.”

OUR TRADITIONS

ACADEMIC DRESS

Traditional academic regalia consists of a gown, hood, and a mortarboard or cap and tassel. The wearing of robes became common in the Middle Ages. In monasteries and universities of the time, scholars wore the same long closed gowns as other medieval men. By the time the University of Cambridge was founded in the early thirteenth century, doctors in law and music were permitted to wear gowns in scarlet, purple, and red. Over time, garments and colours came to identify their university. Regalia colours often matched those of the university patron, or the colours of the city in which the university was located.

At UFV, regalia uses the university's rich green colours. There are vee-stoles for diploma and certificate graduates, while bachelor's degree program graduates wear degree hoods. The coloured binding or trim on the edge of the degree hoods represents the faculty from which a student is graduating.

UFV hood trim colours:

	White	Arts
	Light blue	Education
	Forest green	Professional Studies
	Silver	Health Sciences
	Apricot	Nursing
	Pale green	Science
	Emerald green	Alumni Association (blue cord) Board of Governors (silver cord) Senate (gold cord)
	Pale green on a green hood	UFV Faculty and Administration
	The addition of red cord denotes a master's degree

Honorary degree hood colours:

	White velvet	Doctor of Letters
	Purple velvet	Doctor of Laws
	Orange velvet	Doctor of Technology

THE CHANCELLOR'S MEDALLION

UFV's medallion is worn by the Chancellor for very special occasions. The radiant diamonds in the design symbolize future alumni spreading their knowledge. The BC jade in the centre reflects our region's rich farming and ecological roots. This hand-crafted 18kt white and yellow gold medallion was a gift to the university from Brian Lee of Abbotsford.

THE UFV COAT OF ARMS

UFV's coat of arms (on the cover) features symbols of Stó:lō culture, local wildlife, and elements of the Fraser Valley landscape.

UFV motto: Íyáqáwtxw — in Halq'eméylem, the language of the Stó:lō people, it means, "House of Transformation", symbolizing the transformation of character and intellect.

Blue herons — Indigenous symbols of inquisitiveness, determination, and excellent judgement. Sighting a heron before a hunt indicated the hunt would be victorious. This parallels the search for knowledge at UFV.

The sturgeon — a symbol of abundance and a source of life that lives in the Fraser River (symbolized by the green and white undulating stripes). These represent UFV as a source of knowledge and vitality.

The hummingbird — representative of joy, resilience, agility, and the ability to travel great distances. These mirror UFV's mandate to provide lasting knowledge, the ability to respond to the community, endurance over time, and the transfer of knowledge to students for their journey.

CEREMONY 1

TUESDAY, JUNE 13 | 9:30 AM

College of Arts

Kyla Mitchell-Marquis

Bachelor of Arts (Psychology (Honours) Major)

Kyla Mitchell-Marquis, who is earning a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology (Honours), is a well-rounded and well-liked student with a quiet leadership approach. She is encouraging and supportive of her peers and often steps up to help, whether it be with their research, studying, or applying for graduate programs. Kyla has been very involved in the Psychology department and has volunteered in the Psychology Research and Study Space, acting as a mentor.

Kyla was involved in a Creativity Lab that worked to develop ideas to support (re)building for climate resilience in the Fraser Valley. She also worked as a research assistant for Dr. Evan Taylor, interviewing oncology social workers to explore their experiences and knowledge of patient care for sexually and gender-diverse individuals affected by cancer.

Kyla is an accomplished student. She is thoughtful and engaged, and has an excellent work ethic. Her performance in her coursework is exemplary. Since January 2018, when she began her studies in the BA, she has excelled in all the courses that she has taken.

CEREMONY 2

TUESDAY, JUNE 13 | 2:30 PM

College of Arts

John Botti

Bachelor of Integrated Studies

A successful New York businessman already armed with a BA in economics from prestigious Haverford College, John Botti was looking for a new and meaningful way to help people around the world.

He found it in food.

Moving his family to BC to pursue his education in UFV's Bachelor of Integrated Studies, John focused on planning sustainable food and agriculture systems, dedicating himself to solving agricultural supply chain issues during the early days of COVID.

In April 2020, he and friends founded Farms to Food Banks (FTFB) — a grassroots pandemic-inspired response to agricultural supply chain disruption, wasted crops, lost farmers' income, and food shortages in the South Bronx. With its partner East Side House of the Bronx, FTFB raised $1.5 million in two months from 2,500 donors, distributing 1.3 million pounds of food, and feeding 230,000 people. The project went from idea to execution in only two weeks.

A non-traditional lifelong learner, John (with FTFB) was featured on ABC World News Tonight, Good Morning America, and other national and international media outlets. John's next venture is to develop agrihoods, planned communities integrating agriculture into clustered residential neighborhoods. The purpose: facilitating local food production while providing green space, recreation, aesthetics and value for a community.

UFV departments nominate students to present the graduate address at each Convocation ceremony. It is an honour to be selected to represent the graduates of 2023. We congratulate our six student speakers.

CEREMONY 3

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 14 | 9:30 AM

Faculty of Applied and Technical Studies | Faculty of Science

Sydney Plante

Bachelor of Science (Physics Major)

Sydney Plante is a dedicated student whose enthusiasm has engaged and, in turn, been engaging within her academic life at UFV.

Sydney's active participation in class discussions contributed to a vibrant and enjoyable learning environment and made her a standout leader.

Moreover, her classmates hold her in high regard, recognizing her as a respected and supportive figure. Sydney readily extends a helping hand to her peers who are struggling with course material, embodying the spirit of collaboration and ensuring that no one is left behind.

Sydney is devoted to creating a great learning experience for students. She was involved in the Academic Success Centre, and was a Supported Learning Group leader for two physics courses, sharing her knowledge and helping many students understand course material and succeed in their studies.

As an active participant in the Physics Student Association, Sydney has contributed to the physics community, showcasing her enthusiasm for the subject. Her willingness to volunteer at on-campus events, such as the UFV Open House, highlights her dedication to promoting educational opportunities and fostering a welcome environment.

Sydney plans to pursue grad school to attain her master's degree and PhD, and one day teach at a university.

CEREMONY 4

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 14 | 2:30 PM

Faculty of Education, Community, and Human Development

Rut Castillo

Bachelor of Arts (Adult Education)

After suffering a stroke in early 2020, Rut Castillo returned to education as a mature student to fulfill her academic goal of a degree.

Rut was the recipient of three scholarships, and maintained a GPA of more than 4.3— all while balancing a full workload at home. Eager to incorporate her lifelong learning experiences into a program that was accessible and considerate of her lifework, Rut found a place in the Adult Education degree program at UFV.

A stay-at-home mother, Rut's research focused on the need to incorporate motherhood as a legitimate occupation and source of knowledge. She will present at the Canadian Association for the Study of Adult Education conference this June, and will continue her studies in a Master of Adult Education degree program at St. Francis Xavier University.

"We recognize Rut as an exceptional student who embodies many of the characteristics of the demographic we see," says Adult Education department head Chris Campbell. "She is truly a life-long learner who brings incredible richness to her learning community. She is acknowledged among our faculty as a natural academic leader who is capable of spurring peers — with humour, maturity, compassion, and tact — along their own career and life trajectories."

CEREMONY 5

THURSDAY, JUNE 15 | 9:30 AM

Faculty of Health Sciences

Gurneesh Purba

Bachelor of Kinesiology

Gurneesh Purba is a highly motivated and accomplished student who demonstrates outstanding academic achievement and a deep commitment to the well-being of others.

Led to UFV's Bachelor of Kinesiology program by an inherent passion for caring for people, his impressive academic record and dedication to volunteering in the community are both exemplary.

Gurneesh played a pivotal role in creating and executing projects such as the MySelf Club Intervention study and Chilliwack Junior Boccia program while acting as President of UFV's Kinesiology Student Association. Most recently, he's involved in the UFV Trishaw rides, providing recreational transportation for seniors and people with mobility challenges.

His leadership abilities were showcased at a presentation on the Chilliwack Junior Boccia program at the Alberta Adapted Physical Activity Symposium in 2023, representing UFV as a leader in adapted physical activities for children with mobility challenges. He also presented his research on the MySelf Club at UFV's 2023 Research Day.

With his unwavering passion for physical rehabilitation and health promotion, Gurneesh aspires to become a physiotherapist, aiming to help people regain mobility and enhance their overall well-being.

CEREMONY 6

THURSDAY, JUNE 15 | 2:30 PM

Faculty of Business and Computing

Trisha Kumar

Bachelor of Business Administration (Finance Major)

Trisha is graduating with a Bachelor of Business Administration Honours degree in finance with a 4.03 GPA.

She currently works as a research assistant for Dr. Kirsten Robertson and Dr. Saeed Rahman. After graduating, Trisha intends to pursue a Master of Science in finance, which will allow her to further develop her research skills. Her experience at UFV has led to research exploration of various topics including workplace incivility, veterinary corporatization, urban agriculture, and sustainable finance.

Trisha was invited to present a paper she co-authored at the Administrative Sciences Association of Canada conference in Halifax. She was also the recipient of the UFV Undergraduate Research Excellence Award two years in a row and received three research grants, including the EFCIE Innovation Grant. She served as President of Enactus UFV from July 2021 to February 2023, volunteering over 1,700 hours in this role. Her leadership contributed to the team winning the Scotiabank Climate Change Challenge during the Enactus Canada 2023 Regional Exposition and the Most Improved Team Award in 2022. Since attending UFV, she has received 14 leadership awards.

HONOURED SPEAKERS

This year we welcome two honoured speakers, drawn from our faculty and staff, who will address the convocation audience at ceremonies where there is no honorary degree recipient.

CEREMONY 1
TUESDAY, JUNE 13 | 9:30 AM

Lorna Andrews
Teaching and Learning Specialist (Indigenization)

Lorna Andrews is a decade-long leader at UFV, guiding faculty and staff to a better understanding of colonial impacts on Indigenous people and the need to strive towards reconciliation in Canada.

Working in UFV's Teaching and Learning Centre as an Indigenization Specialist, Andrews uses the Five Rs (Respect, Relevance, Reciprocity, Responsibility, Relationships) as a framework for her programming. She was recently recognized as the first-ever recipient of the UFV Indigenization and Reconciliation award.

Of Nla'kapmux Nation descent and married into the Stó:lō Nation, Andrews has worked within Stó:lō and Indigenous communities for more than 20 years, focusing on employment, training, and post-secondary education. She is a proud UFV alumna with a Bachelor of Arts in Adult Education and went on to complete her master's degree at Simon Fraser University.

Andrews' mother is a residential school survivor. Her husband was taken from his family in the Sixties Scoop and grew up in a non-Indigenous home. Another relative is among the missing and murdered Indigenous women. Their stories drive Andrews' work.

"We need people to walk beside us on this journey," she says.

"For reconciliation to truly happen, it needs to be the work of both Indigenous and non-Indigenous people."

CEREMONY 6
THURSDAY, JUNE 15 | 2:30 PM

Dr. Saeed Rahman
Assistant Professor, Faculty of Business and Computing

Dr. Saeed Rahman is an internationally experienced UFV School of Business assistant professor. He specializes in the areas of business strategy, corporate sustainability, and organizational theory.

Having lived and worked on three different continents — Asia, Europe, and North America — he brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to research and teaching interests ranging from regenerative sustainability to social-ecological systems perspective, ecological knowledge, climate change governance, reverse innovation and social entrepreneurship.

Dr. Rahman serves as the faculty advisor for UFV's Enactus Club — part of an international network of student leaders committed to using business as a catalyst for positive social and environmental impact. UFV's Enactus team won the 2023 Scotiabank Climate Action Regional Championship held in Calgary in March 2023. They returned from Montreal last month after earning a semi-finalist trophy, finishing among the top 20 Enactus teams representing universities across Canada.

Before entering academia, Dr. Rahman worked for more than 10 years in the management, consulting, and fast-moving consumer goods industries with a variety of experiences in sales, business development, human resources management, strategic planning, and project management.

Dr. Rahman's post-secondary education includes an MBA in Strategy from the University of Windsor and a PhD in Strategy and Sustainability from the University of Victoria.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT | TUESDAY, JUNE 13 | 2:30 PM

Mike Retasket

DOCTOR OF LETTERS

A renowned dancer, drummer, political leader, negotiator, cultural interpreter and traditional Secwépemc knowledge keeper, Mike Retasket's experiences combine for invaluable insight on boards ranging from the First Nations Leadership Council to the Fraser Basin Council, First Nations Forestry Council, Union of BC Indian Chiefs, Tourism Industry Association of BC, and many more.

Wisdom earned through 10 years as Chief of the Bonaparte Indian Band helped him negotiate important government agreements, acting as a signatory on the Transformative Change Accord, Public Safety Accord, and the Leadership Accord. Despite the long hours, Mike insists he's happy to do the work — although it hasn't been without difficulty.

"It's not easy being an Indian," he admits, preferring the nomenclature used around his grandparents' kitchen table.

"We have to know the language, we have to know the songs, we have to know the ceremonies, we have to know the culture, we have to know the traditions, we have to know our medicines, we have to know our territory and our water," he said.

"And once we know that, we have the responsibility of passing those teachings on. It could be heavy, but if I turn that heaviness around I can use it in the work towards my healing," he says.

Born in BC, Mike was raised largely in Washington State by older siblings after his mom and dad passed away when he was five and 13, respectively.

The youngest of 11 children, he was identified at an early age as a talented drummer and dancer. This integration into traditional Indigenous customs opened the door to a lifetime of diverse activism, leading to his current job educating tourists about the region's rich Indigenous history in BC's Barkerville Historic Town and Park.

Learned through ancient teachings, his advice to those willing to listen is simple.

"Remember who you are, remember where you come from, leave the land better than how you found it, and speak when you're spoken to," he advises.

His multi-faceted, multi-generational, and open approach to Indigenous education and environmental protection played a large part in the effusive support for Mike's honorary degree from Eric Davis, Special Advisor to the UFV President, who nominated him.

"Mike exemplifies UFV's mission, vision, and values. While preserving and teaching traditional knowledge, and working towards reconciliation, he engages learners, transforms lives, and builds community," Davis says.

"A man who has devoted his adult life to healing by teaching us to take care of our environment, our ancestors, our culture, and each other, is a most deserving candidate for an honorary degree from UFV."

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT | WEDNESDAY, JUNE 14 | 9:30 AM

Dr. Judith Soon

DOCTOR OF LAWS

Sometimes it takes one defining moment to change life's trajectory. For Dr. Judith Soon, that moment was in her Grade 12 year when she and four other classmates toured the inner workings of a pharmacy.

From this experience, Soon knew she wanted to pursue a career in pharmacy, one that has turned out to be extremely rewarding. She is especially proud of developing and maintaining a province-wide clinical pharmacy program for long-term care facilities, helping establish the Fraser Valley Regional Science Fair (FVRSF), and being actively involved with Canada-Wide Science Fairs.

When asked about her achievements, Dr. Soon says she thinks of herself as primarily a support person.

"If I see a problem that needs solving, a system that's not working, or something that needs to be developed or modified, I'll get some colleagues together and work on changing the system."

It was this unassuming and patient-focused attitude that Dr. Soon brought with her when she first moved to the Fraser Valley and noticed a problem within long-term care facilities.

She discovered that prescription processes for members of the aging population living in care homes were not straightforward. She found that nearly every resident in a long-term care home had a different pharmacy.

"A 100-bed nursing home had maybe 30 different pharmacies all bringing their prescription vials and deliveries to the nursing station."

This spurred her to gather some colleagues and create the first consultant clinical pharmacy group in the province, which would then go on to manage medications for 55 long-term care facilities.

"One pharmacy could manage all the medications for one nursing home," she stated. This change decreased the negative side effects patients experienced.

In 1992, Dr. Soon signed up to judge at the Fraser Valley Regional Science Fair (FVRSF). She then became the chief judge in 1995.

Dr. Soon then became chief judge at the Canada-Wide Science Fair in 2005 and has even been invited to international science fairs in Taiwan, Ireland, and Siberia to judge and coordinate the set-up of new science fairs.

Recently retired from her position as an associate professor of Pharmacy at UBC, Dr. Soon is actively involved in the Canada-Wide Science Fair this year in Edmonton, helping coordinate and judge 340 science and technology projects from across the country.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT | WEDNESDAY, JUNE 14 | 2:30 PM

Naxaxalhts'i Albert (Sonny) McHalsie

DOCTOR OF LETTERS

Naxaxalhts'i is not an academic in the traditional Western sense, but by sharing his knowledge with researchers, scholars, and students over the past four decades, he has ensured that a wealth of knowledge about the Stó:lō people, and their culture and traditions is preserved, shared, and interpreted for current and future generations. He has a long association with UFV, and also cooperates with other institutions through his role as an instructor and mentor for an ethnohistory field school.

Perhaps more important than his academic contributions is Naxaxalhts'i's work as an historian and teacher within his own Stó:lō cultural tradition. He is one of the most distinguished interpreters of the Coast Salish world of his generation and serves as a bridge between Elders (many of whom are no longer living), and current scholars and interested people of both Stó:lō and non-Stó:lō descent.

Naxaxalhts'i, more commonly called "Sonny" by his many friends, is an active adjunct member of UFV's History department, regularly leads faculty and staff on Stó:lō Place Name Tours, acts often as an Elder and Witness for university events and gatherings, has served as a member of the UFV Indigenization Committee, and has been a guest speaker for several events in Xwelítem Siyáya: Allyship and Reconciliation Building, a collaboration between UFV and a group of Stó:lō agencies to offer an educational program to help participants enhance their capacity for reconciliation building.

"I nominated Naxaxalhts'i, to recognize him but also the Stó:lō tradition in which he was trained and is training others," notes Dr. Keith Carlson, Canada Research Chair in Indigenous and Community-Engaged History. "Indeed, as one academic recently articulated, 'Sonny is a major force in the development of constructive relations between the mainstream community of British Columbia and Indigenous people here.'"

Shirley Hardman, UFV Associate Vice President, Indigenous, says that Naxaxalhts'i embodies what the university seeks in an Indigenous community-based educator.

"The engagement he has with every community in S'olh Téméxw, with the various Elders and knowledge-keepers, the leaders, storytellers, Halq'emeylem-language speakers, and the cultural educators ensures that what he shares, what he teaches, reflects that which is Stó:lō. His pedagogy is largely an immersion in the experiential. It is how he has learned and it is true to our Stó:lō epistemology. He educates those who listen. His ability as a teacher, storyteller, knowledge-keeper/historian, and a witness to our Stó:lō lived reality. His knowledge is without parallel."

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT | THURSDAY, JUNE 15 | 9:30 AM

Dr. Bonnie Henry

DOCTOR OF LAWS

Well known for leading our province's response to the COVID-19 pandemic in her position as Provincial Health Officer of BC, Dr. Bonnie Henry has had a long and varied career in public health, serving on the frontlines of several serious disease outbreaks.

She is the first woman to hold the Provincial Health Officer position in British Columbia.

Dr. Henry's interest in public health, preventative medicine, and global pandemics has been a common thread throughout her career.

While completing her degree from Dalhousie University, she followed her father's footsteps by joining the Canadian Armed Forces. Employed by the Naval Reserves as a Naval Warfare Officer, she spent 10 years showcasing how women can excel in the military domain.

Prior to her current role, Dr. Henry was the deputy provincial health officer in British Columbia for three years. She also served as the interim provincial executive medical director of the BC Centre for Disease Control (BCCDC). She has worked internationally including with the World Health Organization (WHO) to control the Ebola outbreak in Uganda, and with the WHO/UNICEF polio eradication program in Pakistan.

She was the medical director of Communicable Disease Prevention and Control and Public Health Emergency Management with the BCCDC and medical director for the provincial emerging and vector-borne diseases program, as well as a provincial program for surveillance and control of healthcare-associated infections from 2005 to 2014.

During her time as associate medical officer of Health with Toronto Public Health, she was responsible for the Emergency Services Unit and the Communicable Disease Liaison Unit. In 2003, she was the operational lead in the response to the SARS outbreak in Toronto.

Dr. Henry is a specialist in public health and preventive medicine and is board certified in preventive medicine in the U.S. She graduated from Dalhousie Medical School and completed a Master of Public Health in San Diego, as well as residency training in preventive medicine at University of California, San Diego and in community medicine at University of Toronto.

Dr. Henry is an associate professor at the University of British Columbia. She is the past chair of Immunize Canada. She chaired the Canadian Public Health Measures Task Group and was a member of the Infection Control Expert Group and the Canadian Pandemic Coordinating Committee responding to the 2009 H1N1 influenza pandemic.

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

You've made it! On behalf of the entire University of the Fraser Valley community, we are thrilled to welcome you to the UFV alumni family!

As you step into the world beyond UFV, remember that you are never alone. Today, you join a vibrant and diverse community of over 50,000 UFV alumni spread across the globe. These incredible individuals have walked the same halls, faced similar challenges, and are now making a difference in their communities, and around the world.

Upon graduation from UFV, you automatically become a member of the UFV Alumni Association. Your membership not only brings you closer to fellow alumni but also grants you access to an array of perks and privileges — both on and off campus. From professional development opportunities to exclusive discounts, the benefits of being a UFV alum are immense.

Stay connected with UFV: you could win a $100 Starbucks gift card →

Celebrate your graduation milestone with UFV alumni wine, featuring artwork by an alumni artist. The proceeds will go to support current students. Order six bottles and get free delivery to Lower Mainland addresses. This makes a great gift for proud alumni!

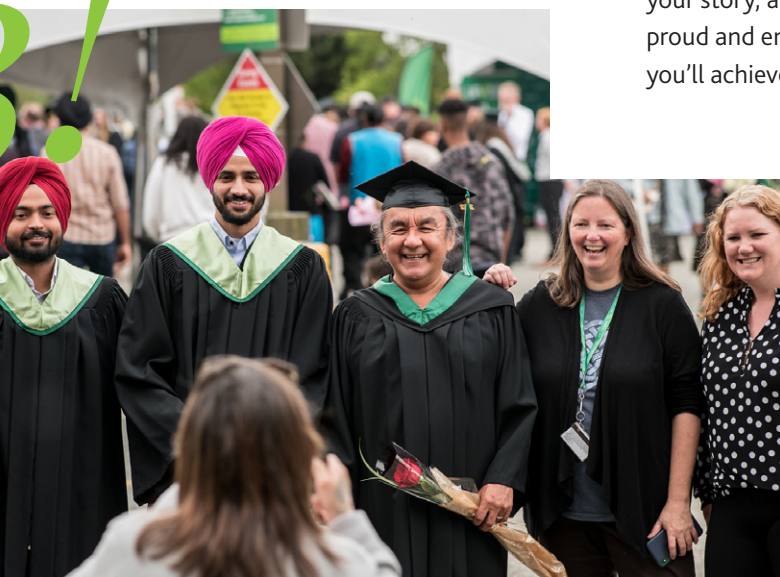

Show off your UFV credential with a Canadian-made frame from Leader Frames. You can choose between silver foil embossing on a hardwood frame or a minted medallion on your choice of frame. Available through the UFV Bookstore.

Show your UFV pride by wearing branded merchandise from the UFV Bookstore. A wide selection of colours and styles are available. Alumni receive a 15% discount on school supplies and UFV apparel.

itions,

We encourage you to stay connected with your alma mater and fellow alumni. Keep us updated on your successes, continue to engage with the UFV community, and consider giving back by mentoring current students or supporting university initiatives. Above all, cherish the bonds you've formed at UFV, for these relationships may last a lifetime.

As you embark on your journey ahead, may you continue to grow, learn, and make a positive impact on the world. UFV will always be a part of your story, and we hope you'll find your way back to our campus as a proud and engaged alum. We can't wait to see the remarkable things you'll achieve. Here's to a bright and successful future!

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Thank you to the many faculty, staff, administrators, alumni, and volunteers who work tirelessly to ensure Convocation, UFV's most significant gathering, is delivered with excellence.

Your dedication makes this celebration a very special and memorable milestone for our graduates and their loved ones.

Special thanks to David McGuire, Associate Vice-President, International, Dave Pinton, Director of Communications, and Daryl Smith, Director, UFV International, for announcing the names of the class of 2023.

Thank you to the UFV Cascades Athletics Centre and Wild Coast Production staff, who excel at customer service.

Special thanks to UFV Floral Design certificate students and instructors for the stage floral arrangements.

Each ceremony is approximately two hours long. To keep disruptions to a minimum, we ask graduates to stay for the entire ceremony and guests to remain seated during the ceremony.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Each graduate will have their photos taken by Artona Photography. Family members and friends will have photo opportunities with their graduate after the ceremony. As professional photographs will be available, family members and guests are encouraged to enjoy the ceremony and remain in their seats.

ALUMNI CELEBRATION PLAZA

Immediately following the ceremony, all guests are invited to join graduates, faculty, and staff at an informal reception at the Alumni Celebration Plaza outside the south end of the UFV Student Union Society (SUS) building. Light refreshments will be served. Thanks to the UFV Alumni Association for sponsoring our post-convocation celebrations!

REGALIA (GOWNS)

Graduating students and faculty are reminded to return their gowns following the ceremony and reception.

SERVICES

Both prior to and following the ceremony, you will find the following services outside and in the UFV Student Union Society (SUS) building:

- UFV Bookstore for alumni merchandise and graduation gifts.
- UFV Alumni Association for fresh-cut flowers, Leader parchment frames, and more.
